Announcement

The Biennial International Conference on Artificial Evolution (EA-2013) will celebrate its 11th anniversary from 21 to 23 October 2013 in Bordeaux, France.

Topics of interest

Authors are invited to submit original papers related, but not limited to:

- Evolutionary computation, evolutionary optimization, co-evolution, natural computing, soft computing.
- Artificial Life, population dynamics.
- Theory, algorithm design and evaluation, implementations.
- Application of evolutionary paradigms to the Real World (biosciences, industry, social-economic sciences etc).
- Other biologically-inspired paradigms (swarm intelligence, artificial ants, artificial immune systems, cultural algorithms, etc).
- Memetic algorithms, multi-objective optimization, constraint handling, dynamic optimization, etc.
- Machine Learning and hybridization with other soft computing techniques.
- Evolutionary robotics...

The 2013 edition will continue the tradition which has been progressively established during its previous editions:

Quality: With a rigorous selection by a high profile International Program Committee, the selected papers (12 pages, LNCS format) are planned to be published by Springer (like for all previous editions).

Comfort: The single session formula of 30mn presentations eases fruitful exchanges between the authors and participants.

Best value: As a non-profit conference, only minimal conference fees are required to cover conference facilities, conference proceedings, three served lunches, coffee breaks, a trip to the city Saint Emilion and the conference banquet dinner.
